

The background of the image is a faded, sepia-toned photograph of a city street. On the left, a prominent red brick building features a tall clock tower with two visible clock faces. To its right, a taller, more ornate building with a pointed roof and classical architectural details is visible. The street is lined with other buildings, and a street lamp is visible on the right side. The overall scene is a classic urban street view.

Please contact the restaurant
for our weekend specials

540-213-0065

clocktowerrestaurantandbar@gmail.com